Located at Great Haywood Marina 2 Berths

Length 60ft 2011

Description

All or Nothing is a spacious 60ft semi-traditional narrowboat, built in 2011 by Nick Thorpe Boatbuilders and professionally fitted out by Ian Elock of Canalside Joinery Services. Designed with comfortable extended cruising and liveaboard use in mind, she offers a well-planned layout with accommodation for up to four people.

The reverse-layout interior begins with a well-equipped galley and dinette, leading through to a generous open-plan saloon, walkthrough bathroom and fixed double bedroom. The galley is fitted with units and storage to both sides, a Belling oven and grill, four-burner gas hob, under-counter fridge and washing machine, alongside a stainless-steel sink and useful shelving.

The spacious saloon provides a welcoming living area, with plenty of natural light from multiple windows, a long fitted sideboard with cupboard storage and a multi-fuel stove set on a tiled hearth. The L-shaped dinette offers a comfortable space for dining and relaxing and converts to provide an additional sleeping berth when required.

The walkthrough bathroom features an enclosed quadrant shower, cassette toilet, vanity unit with inset handbasin, mirrored wall cabinet and plenty of built-in storage. Moving forward, the bedroom benefits from a fixed double bed with storage beneath, two full-height wardrobes, bedside cabinets, reading lights and direct access to the bow deck.

Outside the accommodation, All or Nothing is powered by a Beta Marine 50hp engine with PRM 150 gearbox and benefits from a bow thruster, solar panels, inverter, multi-fuel stove and Mikuni diesel central heating. With generous water and fuel capacities and ample storage throughout, she is well equipped for longer periods aboard.

Offering a practical layout, comfortable accommodation and an excellent range of cruising and liveaboard equipment, All or Nothing represents an attractive opportunity for anyone looking for a well-appointed 60ft narrowboat ready for extended cruising or life afloat.
