Description

Step aboard Dada, a beautifully preserved and sensitively modernised 52ft Dutch barge that perfectly blends traditional craftsmanship with contemporary comfort. Built in the 1920s and meticulously cared for ever since, she carries the elegance and charm of a historic vessel while offering the practicality required for modern liveaboard life. Fully overplated and fitted with double glazing throughout, she is warm, secure and exceptionally well looked-after. She was last blacked in October 2023 with six new anodes fitted, and her most recent engine service was completed in October 2025. With a Boat Safety Certificate valid until 2029, Dada is ready to cruise or enjoy as a permanent floating home without worry.Entering through the wheelhouse, you are greeted with an elevated and light-filled space full of character. Large surrounding windows provide striking views and make this a peaceful place to sit with a morning coffee, read a book, or watch the waterway life pass by. From here, steps lead down into the galley, where a cleverly arranged and fully equipped kitchen awaits. With a gas cooker and four-ring hob, fridge, freezer, instant gas hot water, under-counter storage and a drop-leaf dining table, this space is designed for everyday living, offering everything you need to prepare meals and enjoy leisurely dining aboard.Moving forward, the lounge offers a welcoming and cosy retreat. A comfortable sofa sits opposite a multi-fuel stove, making this a perfect space to settle in on cooler evenings, whether you're watching the flames dance or enjoying the gentle sounds of the water outside. Beyond the lounge lies the bathroom, featuring a rare onboard
